

Save time and stay informed with

NEJM
Journal Watch

NEJM Journal Watch helps practicing clinicians - physicians, nurses, physician assistants, nurse practitioners, residents, students, pharmacists, and other healthcare professionals – stay informed and current in their fields.

Our physician-editors regularly survey over 250 medical journals and other sources of medical news, then prepare

- Brief, easy-to-read summaries
- Expert comments

The most important research, medical news, drug information, public health alerts, and guidelines across 12 medical specialties are summarized and put into perspective for you.

NEJM Journal Watch assists clinicians in

- Understanding medical developments
- Improving patient care
- Fostering professional development
