Rector's Directive, stipulating

Tuition and fees associated with studies at the Slovak University of Technology in Bratislava for the academic year 2023-2024

applicable to study programmes ensured by faculties of STU and the Institute of Management of STU (hereinafter referred to as the "Directive"). The tuition and fees associated with studies shall be, in the case of faculties of STU, determined based on a proposal of the relevant faculty Dean, and in the case of the Institute of Management of STU, based on a proposal of the Director of the Institute of Management of STU.

Article 1

Basic Provisions

(1) The studies in study programmes of the first, second and third level shall be realised at a faculty, if professionally and organisationally ensured by the faculty; in other cases, the study programme shall be realised at the University (Institute of Management of STU). Unless otherwise stipulated in a specific provision of this Directive, the term "faculty" shall also apply to the University (Institute of Management of STU) and the term "Dean" shall apply in connection with the University (Institute of Management of STU) to "Rector"; all terms shall be in relevant relationship to the meaning of the affected provision, unless they contradict with the nature of the given provision.

(2) The entirety of this text uses a masculine term of nouns, for the purpose of simplifying the text (such as applicant, student, graduate, etc.). Every use of such a term includes all persons regardless of their gender or sex.

(3) The basis for determining the tuition and fees associated with studies at the university and its faculties shall be 10 % of the average amount connected to one student in full-time studies of the overall usual expenditures provided by the Ministry of Education, Science, Research and Sports of the Slovak Republic (hereinafter referred to as the “Ministry”) to public universities from the state budget as part of the specification of the approved budget in the previous calendar year. The basis shall be rounded down to whole five euro¹.

(4) The basis, pursuant to Clause (2) of this Article set by the Ministry, for the academic year 2023-2024 shall represent the amount of EUR 545.00.

(5) The annual tuition shall apply to the academic year.

(6) The annual tuition in study programmes in the full-time form of studies must not exceed five times the basis, pursuant to Clause 2 of this Article. Limitation of the tuition amount shall not apply to tuition in the study programmes in the full-time form of studies in other than state language, pursuant to Article 2 Clauses (8) to(11) hereof.

(7) Annual tuition in study programmes in the external form of studies must not exceed the result of multiplication of the amount of the maximum annual tuition determined by the Ministry for the relevant academic year by a measure [Article 3 Clause (1) hereof] and the quotient expressed as a result of division of the number of credits, the achievement of which serves as a pre-requisite for proper completion of studies in the relevant study programme, and the result of multiplication of standard length of studies of the relevant study programme and the number 60². The maximum annual tuition in study programmes in the full-time form of studies shall be derived from the subsidy for the realisation of accredited study programmes³.

(8) For the purposes of this Directive:

- a) The first three years of study in the study programmes pursuant to Section 53 (3) of the Act (combined first and second level of studies) shall be considered as study programmes of the first level, and fourth and further years of studies in the study programme, pursuant to Section 53 (3) of the Act, as studies in the study programme of second level, so that the fourth year of studies in the study programme, pursuant to Section 53 (3) of the Act, shall be considered as the first year of studies in the study programme of the second level and further years, respectively⁴;

The length of studies, determined according to previous regulations, shall be considered as the standard length of studies according to the valid wording of the act⁵;
- c) A student who was issued a Certificate of Slovak Living Abroad, pursuant to a special regulation,⁶ shall be considered as a citizen of the Slovak Republic.

⁵ Section 113a par. 8 of the Act.

⁶ Section 7 par. 1 of the Act No. 474/2005 Coll. on Slovaks living abroad and on Amendments and Supplements to Certain Acts, as amended.

(9) A study programme realised in the state language shall mean a study programme realised in the Slovak language or in a combination of the Slovak language with another language, resp. languages (e.g. Czech language, English language), which means that the study programme (as a whole) is not realised exclusively in a language other than the state language.

(10) A student who is provided with a scholarship from a scholarship programme created with the approval of the government and a student who studies in the Slovak Republic as part of academic mobility according to Section 58a of the Act, through an exchange programme created with the approval of the government or as part of the European Union programme for education and vocational training, youth and sports, or a student who has been granted asylum, granted temporary refuge or has been granted supplementary protection, is not obliged to pay tuition fees.⁷

(1) The annual tuition in the full-time form of studies for the academic year 2023-2024, pursuant to Article 1 Clause (5) hereof, must not exceed the amount of EUR 2,725.

(2) A student in the full-time form of studies shall be obliged to pay annual tuition to the faculty, if such obligation applies to him or her, pursuant to Clause (3), (5), (8), (9), (10) or (11) of this Article.

(3) A student who studies parallel, during one academic year, in two or more study programmes provided by a public university or state university with a seat in the territory of the Slovak Republic (hereinafter referred to as the “university”) on the same level, shall be obliged to pay annual tuition in the second and further study programme for studies in the academic year 2023-2024. department of the faculty at which he or she is registered, namely no later than by 30 September 2022¹⁰.

(5) A student who studies in a study programme, provided by the faculty longer than its standard length of studies, shall be obliged to pay to the faculty tuition for each further year of studies; if student studies a degree programme longer than their standard length of study due to participation in an academic mobility under an exchange program and the terms of that exchange programme or the student was awarded by a social scholarship in the last year of their study during standard length of study, the obligation for payment of tuition fees in accordance with the first sentence of this Article does not arise in the year of study following the year of exceeding the standard length of study. The total length of studies reflects the period for which the student was registered at a university in one of the study programmes of relevant level of university education; if the student is registered, during one academic year, for parallel studies in several study programmes, only one year shall be calculated in the overall length of study. Tuition fees due to studies longer than the standard length of study of the relevant study programme shall be determined as a proportional part of the annual tuition fee depending on the number of credits that should be obtained by the student in the relevant academic year in relation to the student's standard load.¹¹

(6) The overall period of studies, pursuant to Clause (5) of this Article, shall not reflect the period during which the student was registered for studies at a university in a study programme in which he or she paid tuition.

(7) If a citizen studied on the same level of university studies, parallel in several study programmes in one academic year or in its part, studies in each study programme prior to 1 September 2008 shall be reflected individually in the overall length of studies for the purposes of Clause (5) of this Article, if he or she studies in some of the study programmes only for a part of the academic year, this period shall be rounded up to the whole academic year for the purposes of Clause (5) of this Article¹².

The obligation to pay tuition fees arises only if

a) in the academic year in which the student began to study the relevant study programme, any higher education institution accepted students for studies in the same field of study and degree in a study programme which is also conducted in the state language, and

b) the faculty has informed the admitted student about the obligation to pay the tuition fee in writing, together with the amount of the annual tuition fee for all years of study during the standard length of study of the study programme.¹³

(9) A student in full-time study according to Clause 8 of this Article shall pay the amount of the annual tuition fee determined by the directive for the academic year in which they were accepted for study each academic year during the standard length of study of the study programme. The faculty may reduce the published tuition fees during the course of study.

¹¹ Section 92 par. 6 of the Act.

¹² Section 113a par. 7 of the Act.

¹³ Section 92 par. 8 of the Act.

(10) A student in full-time study according to Clause 8 of this Article is obliged to pay the annual tuition fee in the amount determined for the given study programme for the relevant academic year after exceeding the standard length of study.¹⁴

(11) Tuition in a study programme that is conducted exclusively in a foreign language shall be paid in accordance with the regulations effective until 24 April 2022, if the student enrolled in the relevant study programme until 24 April 2022.¹⁵

(12) The faculty may decide if it requires tuition for a study programme conducted exclusively in a foreign language. In the case that the faculty will not require tuition for such a study programme, the accepted applicant will not be notified of the obligation to pay tuition fees in accordance with Clause 8 (b) of this Article. In such a case, a student of a study programme in full-time form, conducted exclusively in a foreign language will only pay tuition if such an obligation arises in accordance with Clause 3 or Clause 5 of this Article.

(13) The annual tuition for the academic year 2023-2024, in the full-time form of studies in the study programmes realised at individual faculties and at the University (Institute of Management of STU), shall be stated in Annex No. 1 hereof.

Article 3

(2) A student shall be obliged, pursuant to the valid Study Regulations of STU, to correctly state facts decisive for the determination of tuition, in form of a declaration that is to be submitted by the student at the time of the first registration for studies and at each subsequent registration for further parts of the study programme, namely to the relevant study department.

(3) After the obligation to pay tuition arises, the faculty shall be obliged to issue to the student a written decision on the amount of tuition (hereinafter referred to as “the decision on the obligation to pay the tuition”). The decision on the obligation to pay the tuition shall contain a statement indicating the amount of tuition and the due date of the tuition, justification of the obligation to pay the tuition and instruction on the possibility of submitting an application for a reduction or remission of tuition fees (hereinafter also referred to as the “Tuition Adjustment Application” or “Application”). (5) If not provided otherwise, in justified cases, the student may submit a written Tuition Adjustment Application, pursuant to Clause (3) of this Article, to the Rector; submitting the Application does not have a suspensory effect on the validity and enforceability of the Decision on the Obligation to Pay the Tuition. The student shall submit the Tuition Adjustment Application through the Academic Information System (hereinafter referred to as the “AIS”), print it out and personally sign and deliver it to the relevant study department or send it via regular post to the address of the relevant study department, no later than within a period of 10 business days from the day of delivery of the decision on the obligation to pay the tuition. In case of Applications sent by regular postal mail, the date of their submission marked by the post office on the envelope shall be decisive. This means that this date cannot be later than the tenth business day after the delivery of the decision on the obligation to pay the tuition. (6) Pursuant to Section 92 (18) of the Act, the Rector may reduce or remit tuition and fees associated with studies, depending on the study results, social and health situation of the student or other circumstances being worthy of special consideration, pursuant to principles stated in the Article 23 of the STU Statutes and in cases stated in Article (5) of this Directive. The rector shall not allow postponement of the due date of payable tuition.

(7) The Rector shall issue a decision in the matter of Clause (6) of this Article within a period of 30 days from the delivery of Tuition Adjustment Application to the Rector through relevant study department of the STU.

¹⁸ Article 23 Clause 13 of Statute of STU.

(8) An application submitted pursuant to Clause (3) of this Article, but delivered after the lapse of the deadline for its submission, pursuant to Clause (5) of this Article, shall not be considered.

(9) Actions of a student, who refused to provide information and facts decisive for the determination of the payment of tuition and fees associated with studies or who stated incorrect or incomplete information or failed to pay tuition and fees associated with studies in a proper and timely manner, shall be considered as a disciplinary offence in line with the valid Disciplinary Rules of STU for Students. STU shall claim unsettled debts in court¹⁹.

4. If the student suffered serious deterioration in health condition, which affect his study duties (work disability longer than 1 month), during studies of the study programme, and that was the reason for exceeding the standard length of studies under the study programme in such a case, tuition can be reduced by 50%.

b) Other circumstances:

1. If a student achieved a weighted study average (hereinafter referred to as the "WSA") of no more than 1.5, and at the same time was an important sportsman or sportswoman (representing the Slovak Republic at World or European Championships, Olympic Games, World Universiade) in the academic year preceding the academic year in which the obligation to pay tuition arose; in such a case, tuition can be reduced by 50%.

(3) Reasons for reducing tuition, stated in Clause (2) hereof, cannot be mutually cumulated. The Rector shall always consider only the most serious reason stated in the Application of a student.
