

Rector's Decision
on cancelling the Rector's holiday

Bratislava, November 3, 2020

No.: sekr./166/23602/2020

In connection with the suspension of on-site learning at the Slovak University of Technology in Bratislava („STU“) and the undergoing distance learning method in connection with the prevention of spread of COVID-19, based on the agreement of the majority of Deans of STU faculties and in accordance with Article 8 point 5 of Study Regulations of STU, as ammended by ammendments 1 and 2, the Rector of STU

C A N C E L SOn November 16, 2020*RECTOR'S HOLIDAY,*As announced in the time schedule of academic year 2020/2021.

Deans of STU faculties and director of the Institute of Management of STU will let the Rector's decision be known to students and university teachers of their faculty/university workplace, and will ensure that the distance learning method will proceed on November 16, 2020. Additionally, they will ensure the running of their faculty/university workplace in compliance with legitimate interests of university teacher and other employees of the relevant part of STU.

prof. Ing. Miroslav Fikar, DrSc., in his own hand Rector