

Erasmus+ Internship Offer

Assistant in eye-tracking research

General information

Duration: 3 – 9 months (September – November, September – June 2018/2019)

Working week: 5 days per week (40 hours), flexible working schedule

Description:

We offer internship position for a prospective student preferably with experience in eye-tracking research and related fields.

What we ask:

- Good English language skills (B2 – C1)
- Czech and Slovak languages to strong advantage
- IT skills to advantage
- Cover own living costs (e.g. via Erasmus+ grant)
- Open minded, cooperative, interested in the topic
- Preferably student in Master or Doctoral level

Scope of activities:

- Office assistant of head of the center
- Work with eye-tracking technology
- Organizational activities connected to eye-tracking research in schools
- Literature review in theoretical research, building database of sources
- Possibility to work on own research
- Data interpretation
- Possible cooperation in publication of results

What we offer:

- Training in variety of activities
- Friendly professional environment
- Assistance in finding accommodation and help around the city
- Methodological supervision
- Possibility to take part in educational activities

If interested, please send your CV and motivation letter to jana.skrabankova@osu.cz.